STILL OUT.

The Jury in the Hotson Case Has Not Yet Agreed.

A Large Crowd in the Court-Room to Hear It Announced.

EXPLANATION MADE OF MARY BECKER'S ABSENCE FROM THE TRIAL.

How the Defense Closed Its Case—The Prosecution Secures Some Damaging Admissions From Mrs. Arts—The Attorneys on Both Sides Make Strong Arguments to the Jury—Judge
Green's Instructions.

The jury in the Hotson case which retired from the Criminal Court at 3 P.M. last night is still out.

The defense closed its case late yesterday by putting Mrs. Annie Arts and Mrs. Maggie Chamberlain on the stand. Mrs. Arts testified that she had met Laura Fitts at the house of Mrs. Stuts, a midwife friend of Mrs. Arts. She said that Laura Fitts had come with a gentleman friend and urged Mrs. Stuts to perform an operation on her, as it would kill her parents if they discovered her condition. Mrs. Stuts refused to accommodate.

Mrs. Chamberlain's evidence was impas-sional, and Attorney Bishop on cross-examination had no less than one hour in which to teach Mrs. Hotson and her daughter music for the past year.

With this testimony the defense rested. In other cases it was surprising that at that the prosecution, nothing having been brought up to contradict the direct and damaging witness of the defense, Mrs. Arts. At 4 A.M., Judge Green instructed the jury. His directions were lengthy, severe and explicit. They were to acquire all the facts, to let no fact stand alone for more than five years. Assistant Circuit Attorney Bishop made the opening address. On the afternoon of his arrival he wrote Mr. McDonald, who spent most of his time trying to impugn Mrs. Fitts' testimony by the statements of the defense members who had seen her on the afternoon of Jan. 26. He intended to show that the operation could not have been produced in a single night, drawing on the testimony of his experts to prove it.

It was followed by Mr. Thomas S. Harvey, who devoted his attention to the State's principal witness, Kitty Mosley and her co-defendant, Mrs. Arts. Harvey, in his hair character, saying that the testimony of women of such character should not be accepted.

Prosecutor Attorney Zachritz voiced for the State. He made a brief, laconic and forceful address. Several times he called for a vote of confidence.

After the closing argument the jury retired.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

The Hotson case has been full of surprises, from start to finish. It began with unexpected trials, the prosecution and the defense each having its quota. Everyone looked expectantly for the trial to end in a hung jury.

Mary Becker's principal witness, but she did not appear. In her stead Circuit Attorney Schmitz played up a trump card in the production of Mrs. Arts. Mrs. Arts, who had not been tested, gave a statement that she had been at Mrs. Hotson's house on the evening of Jan. 26. Furthermore than this was not thought that her evidence could bring in any conviction. But the defense had dropped into the State's strongest witness, much stronger perhaps than Mary Becker herself, having or she was directed to do so. That Laura Fitts had come to her house for the purpose of having a criminal operation performed on her. But Mary Becker could go and the defense realized that after her statement they were fighting against her very odds.

The defense had surprised in the time consumed in trying to prove that the physician had not caused for Laura Fitts on the fatal evening. It could not do so, but Mrs. Hotson, in trial, had failed to put Mrs. Hotson on the stand in her own defense, a proceeding wholly commendable from a legal point of view. The public, the shifting and uncertain line of defense, changing first from an attempt to cover up the crime, then bringing it into the part of Dr. Brown in performing a perjury to an attempt to bring out the fact that a criminal operation had been performed by someone else. The defense had tried to show that Laura Fitts had done the deed herself, hacking it up by medical evidence that the operation was a simple one. One line was set up and adhered to, their defense wavering with the nature of the evidence. The defense had been able to get the sentiment about the court this morning seemed to favor a conviction. No one had been able to get the sympathy of the prosecution. The young prosecutor, who had shown great experience in the examination of witnesses, was surprised every day by the strength of the defense. Tiring of the defense he had so dismally brought it to he wove it into a complete chain picking out of it the best parts and weaving them together with oratorical fire. He is not pathetic, but forceful, and his arguments in the trial were excellent. His speech was another of the surprises of the trial.

MISSING MARY BECKER.

The Police Department this morning gave the inside history of the failure to proce. Mary Becker. It is a queer story. Her sister, and her aunt from Carrollton, Ill., walked into the chief's office and told the department of the facts of the case. Becker had been greatly influenced by Marshall Donald, and he wanted to return to him. He offered her money to away from Carrollton and keep out of the trouble. Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a.m. to-day. Fair Sunday variable winds, becoming easterly.

The area of low pressure which was yesterday central in the Red River valley of the north has moved eastward, and is now central in Canada, north of Lake Huron, bringing with it a depression in a severe storm.

High temperatures continue in the Ohio Valley, while to the north and west of Missouri there has been a marked fall in temperature.

Night showers occurred last night in portions of Missouri, Illinois and Indiana. Elsewhere the weather has been fair.

St. Louis forecast: Fair; warmer by Sunday evening.

MR. WALBRIDGE'S skill as a dodger extends to questions from voters.

MR. AGADJANIAN of New York has arrived in Paris. What do foreigners think of our American names?

THERE are no restoratives in Mr. Caruso's medicine-chest. He that has been bounced must continue bounced.

DOUBTFUL Mr. Walbridge realizes that a record of his performances would be a promise on his part ridiculous.

OF MR. CLIFFORD, it was a good President before he is now said to be there is a prospect of a very good four years for the country.

THE Senators and Congressmen, who are putting their relatives on the national pay roll may hear of themselves when the time comes for the election of their successors.

ED BUTLER failed to rule Bannerman in the House of Delegates, but he never failed to get help for a job in the Council from Walbridge. The records show who is the man for Butler.

WHERE the new Democratic Postmaster begins to take an inventory of the office and reaches the Columbian stamps, he weakness a little, but patriotism finally triumphs and he holds on.

We believe that willingness to break the law and shield law-breakers is regarded by the people of St. Louis as a disqualification for office. This is the basis of our belief that Ziegelnheim will be defeated.

NO DEMOCRAT ever contended that reciprocity was not a good thing. They did and do maintain that it is such a good thing that we can't have too much of it, and therefore propose to extend the policy to include the world.

THE astonishment expressed at the discoveries of extravagance made in Washington since the new administration took hold is not justified. It should be borne in mind that the outgoing party had an enormous surplus to squander, as well as an exorbitant tariff to keep up.

THE new Pension Commissioner is expected to prevent the payment of illegal pensions, but Congress has the more arduous task of stopping the payment of a sum of legal claims which have no bearing in morality and justice than a bonus conferred by the ex-Mr. him.

WHEN the Excise Commission law goes into effect the City Collector will still have entire control of the merchant and other licensees, where there is wide room for abuse and scarcely any check upon crookedness. The Collector, therefore, should be a man who will honestly enforce the law. That bars Ziegelnheim.

A BILL providing for the employment of convicts in roadmaking has passed the Lower House of the New York Legislature, and it is safe to say that no humanitarian considerations will prevent its passage through the Senate. Gov. Flower, however, has always been accessible to common sense and justice may prevent the outrage. Prison reform is not making much substantial progress in this country.

JOHN SHERMAN thinks that free coinage would be all right if enough silver were put in the dollar to make it equal to the gold coin of that denomination. The old man is making progress. After a little more thought he may conclude that a little more silver in the silver dollar and a little less gold in the gold dollar would better satisfy the equities. Gold has no doubt appreciated, while the white metal has followed a contrary course. Neither one of these facts should be ignored if an honest settlement of the question is really desired.

THE attempt of the Walbridge organ to make it appear that the whole effort of the Democrats is concentrated upon the election of Bannerman and Hornsby, in order that with the holdover Councilmen there will be a Democratic Council to confirm the appointments of a Democratic Mayor, is a piece of absurdity which is easily punctured. The appointments cannot be made until the six hold-over Democrats go out of office and a new election has been held. The voters will then determine the political complexion of the Council. The assertion of the Democratic intention to concentrate upon these two men for disreputable and partisan purposes is a palpable campaign trick.

THE case of disturbing the peace against Edward O'Connell, who was singing by Officer Murphy yesterday, was continued in the Second District Police Court this morning until next Saturday on motion of Mr. Simon S. Bass for the city. Mr. Bass, it being understood, was engaged by private subscription among the policemen interested to prosecute the man they beat up without the slightest justification.

The extent to which the police involved

"It is hard to day my last words would be. "You know, I have told the truth, and expect to get slugged before I get home." I have been to the police court twice, and the people and now that the case is out of my hands, I may not be able to come," said Mr. Martin, with a knowing wink.

During the hearing of the court saw Murphy hit O'Connell, and gives as a reason that O'Connell held the door and would not let Murphy out.

Charge Brought by Police Against a Mining Company.

A warrant was applied for to-day by the police against the agent of the Montana Mining and Investment Co., whose office is at 1902 Washington avenue, on the ground that the manner in which the company is operating is a violation of the lottery law.

The workings of the company, as set forth in its circulars, are that 100,000 certificates are issued every month and sold for $1 each.

The headquarters of the company are at Butte, near which the mines are alleged to be located. Of the $100,000 certificates issued for the year, $25,000 go for expenses, as maintaining branch offices, advertising, etc., $25,000 is used in improving the mines, and the remaining $50,000 is loaned out to the purchasers of the certificates in sums of from $5 to $50,000, to be repaid in monthly installments.

The workings of the company, as set forth in its circulars, are that 100,000 certificates are issued every month and sold for $1 each.

The headquarters of the company are at Butte, near which the mines are alleged to be located. Of the $100,000 certificates issued for the year, $25,000 go for expenses, as maintaining branch offices, advertising, etc., $25,000 is used in improving the mines, and the remaining $50,000 is loaned out to the purchasers of the certificates in sums of from $5 to $50,000, to be repaid in monthly installments.

PREMIER MELINE.

President Carnot Summons a Statesman to Form a Cabinet.

THE NEW HEAD OF THE MINISTRY AN OPPORTUNIST WITH A RECORD.

He Had the Agricultural Portfolio Once and Has Been President of the Chamber—The French-Canadian Treaty Will Not Be Ratified—Argentina Abandons Her Contentions for a Pacific Port.

PANIS, April 1.—Excitement prevails in all the political groups and considerable anxiety exists as to what will be the outcome of the crisis.

The rumors as to whom President Carnot would select for the task of forming a new ministry were set at rest this morning by the announcement that the President had requested M. Meline to undertake the formation.

M. Meline, who is a lawyer by profession, was born in 1858. During the reign of Paris, he was Adjutant to the Mayor of the First Arrondissement. He was elected a member of the Chamber of Deputies in 1882. In 1886 M. Meline was Under-Secretary of State in the Department of Justice, and in 1888 he was appointed Minister of Agriculture. During his term of office he founded the Order of Merit for Agriculture. In 1888 he was named President of the Chamber of Deputies. In politics he is an Opportunist.

THE CANADIAN-FRENCH TREATY.

OTTAWA, April 1.—The Dominion Government has decided not to ask Parliament to ratify the reciprocity treaty recently negotiated with France. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance, communicated this announcement to Parliament yesterday. One of the chief points which the Government had to consider was the reference to the most favored nation clause. No courtesy had been shown to Canada in this connection, and the reciprocity treaty could not be ratified.

It is desirable, as far as possible, to secure a clause of reciprocity, and it is also important that the Canadian authorizations be as complete as possible. Catholic annual, quarterly, monthly, or other review or periodical, or any United States or Canadian newspaper, and especially those made to the Archbishops and Bishops, to the regular and territorial clergy, to the Catholic University, who have duplicates of such authors or periodicals, or who have broken sets of any such may be asked to do so.

In another part of his circular Bro. Maurelian calls attention to the remittances sent by the Canadian bishops to the Holy See.

"Catholic authors and publishers in England, Ireland, Canada and the United States have taken a lively interest in the project of a collection of Catholic authors. Very many books have already been received, and it is believed that a large number of volumes are now in transit to the James' boys or the Dalton gang that into New York last night and announced that they would take possession. The paraded the streets shooting and shooting at anybody they saw, killing two poor villagers dead in dismay and terror, robbing until attack, but they were routed. During the battle Joe Wright, a prominent merchant, was terribly beaten and injured. The officers, reinforced by a mob of forty excited citizens, made another charge soon and supplies themselves with ropes to hang the Jackson trio, but the latter regained their horses, and after an exciting chase of two miles escaped in the darkness. A running race was kept up during the night, but the villagers escaped with a few wounds while the Jacksons were unharmed. Fearful of more vengeance, should Wright's wounds prove fatal, the hiding places have fled the country.

ARRESTED IN COURT.

HILLSBORO, Tex., April 1.—John Bennett Freeman was arrested in the District Court here yesterday to answer a charge of murder in Cannon County, Tenn. Freeman was a witness in a case, and just before Court adjourned Sheriff Bell called him aside and placed him under arrest. He had come here from Harrold, Wilbarger County, to testify, and it was thought that he was the man who killed a man named Arnett in Tennessee ten years ago. Freeman admitted that he was present at the killing, but he did not know without a question. He says that the killing was done in self-defense and that he is sure of an acquittal. He is a member of the Free Soil party, conducting a general store at Harrold under the name of John Bennett.

PARIS, April 1.—M. Andrieux in capturing Arton, has withdrawn from the search for the fugitive lobbyist. It is reported that he considers the clues given by M. Andrieux as to Arton's whereabouts to be insufficient.

THE CHILI-ARGENTINA PROTOCOL.

VALLARTA, Chile, April 1.—A correspondent in Buenos Ayres telegraphs that in the Chilean protocol with Argentina the latter withdraws her demand for a port on the Pacific in consideration that Chile will accept as her limit the entrance to the Magellan Straits at the point known as the First Narrows. GRAND WORDS OF TRUTH.

It is easy for people to talk about themselves and state what they may have done; it is far better to have other people speak for you. The words which follow are the frank expressions of people who know what they speak.

Rev. Wm. W. Whitney of Louisville, N. Y., says: "I have selected many of us for years past with malice, and have had pneumonia three times and have been troubled with bronchial and catarrhal trouble of the throat. Two years ago I had the grip, which ran into catarrhal pneumonia. I was very sick for twelve weeks and the doctors thought I would die. The words which follow are the frank expressions of people who know what they speak.

E. C. Avila of the Brooklyn Association for Protection of Condition of the Poor says: "I have had Diphtheria, a severe attack of it for two years past with malice, and have had pneumonia three times and have been troubled with bronchial and catarrhal trouble of the throat. Two years ago I had the grip, which ran into catarrhal pneumonia. I was very sick for twelve weeks and the doctors thought I would die. IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Over 2,000 Feet Olive Street Property to Be Sold at Auction.

Philadelphia March 22, 1893
Mr. Thomas F. Farrelly, Real Estate Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir: As I am about closing my accounts with the estate of the late James A. Hardy, of St. Louis, I have concluded to sell some of the realty belonging to that estate in your city this year. You will, therefore, please make announcement to that effect, and arrange for a sale of the property on the south side of Olive Street between Cabanne & Boyle avenues to be held some time late in April.

Well-informed friends in St. Louis advise me that the future of Olive Street property now seems brighter than today. This confirms my own opinion, and I shall, therefore, look for good prices. My object, however, is to sell, and I shall be satisfied if the property bring fair prices.

Please keep me advised of your plans for the sale.

Yours very truly,
Charles A. Hardy

In compliance with the instructions of the foregoing letter received from Mr. Chas. A. Hardy, who represents all parties interested in the estate of the late James A. Hardy of St. Louis, I beg leave to announce that over 2,000 feet of property belonging to said estate and located on the south side of Olive st., between Cabanne and Boyle avs., will be offered at public sale on the premises, on Monday, 24th Day of April. Further particulars later.

Romantic Story of a Bequest and a Rival Claimant.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 1.—As a reward for being a tramp a meal and helping him or is C. L. Kreising, the Home Dressed and has been bequeathed $12,000. A year ago Kreising, while walking down Carson street, was accosted by a stranger who had a harrowing story of hard luck. Kreising said, taking the man with him, bought him a meal.
ought him a meal. The tramp refused to drink liquor and that caused Kreising to say he was a fool. The tramp refused to eat and Kreising gave the tramp his address, some change to help him buy a ticket to the home in Kittanning and left him. A few days later Mr. Kreising received a firm of lawyers in Kittanning, stating that the stranger who he had helped had died and possession of a few weeks before his death. A singular part of the story is that another C.
L. Kreising living at Lock Haven has put in a claim for the money.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical well-being, will attest
the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embodied in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and presentable to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.
It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drugists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Orth's trio, Frances Pope and Brownwood
are regarded as certain starters, and are in the lead. Constantine, however, Morello's successor, is not far behind.

The field of eligible ones, with the weights they will carry, follows: E. R. Rice's Frances Pope; Cushing and Orth's Boundless, Lookout and Calhoun; W. J. Jackson's Brownwood; Scoggan Bros.' Buck McCann, and Tom Kiley's The King, all of whom will shoulder 118 pounds; Buddy Bro's Tom Reed;

H. B. Shad's Oliver; W. W. Kelly's Dick Willie, and W. Sanford's Harland, who will each pack 112 pounds, and L. J. Caton's Constantine, who will be weighted with 110 pounds. The latter, two of Cushing and Orth's trio, Frances Pope and Brownwood
are regarded as certain starters, and are in
the lead. Constantine, however, Morello's successor, is not far behind.
